BOOKS FOR EVERYONE . . .

Set aside for the casual reader. You'll find a wide collection of current general magazines and newspapers as well as recent fiction, biography and travel books in this reading room. It's a comfortable spot to relax during spare moments.

... ALL KINDS FOR CHILDREN

A special division of the Main Library, the Children's Room serves children from pre-school age through the eighth grade. The Children's Librarian will gladly advise parents on book selection and make suggestions for children with reading difficulties.

READING GUIDANCE... PROGRAM PLANNING

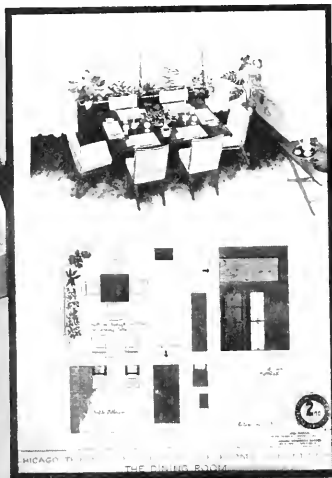

Want to take up a new hobby? Need suggestions for planning a club program? Could you use the address of a lecture bureau? Desire to expand your knowledge on some special subject? Professional librarians are on duty to help you with these needs.

HELPFUL DISPLAYS . . .

Special exhibits are frequently obtained on a loan-basis, such as this one on home planning.

World News Maps review current important developments of political, scientific and human interest.

Current displays point out books dealing with seasons, holidays and topics of current interest.

... AS CLOSE AS YOUR PHONE

Everyone needs information at some time—an address, the population or location of a town, the name and address of your Congressman—these and many other inquiries are answered daily at the Information desk. Come in person or dial 3-3381.

FOR BUSINESS OR TRADE . . .

Find it difficult to keep up with the latest labor law, the financial status of a certain firm, the newest invention in your field? Need ideas for remodeling a home or business? The books, trade magazines and investment records in the Business and Technical Collection help many.

EXTENSION

SERVICES FOR ALL . . .

- (1) This deposit library at the Children's Home keeps many happy.
- (2) The Library Truck travels to the parks and playgrounds during the summer months—a part of the City Recreational Program.
- (3) The Nurses' Home deposit library offers enjoyment and recreation during off-duty hours.
- (4) Hospital patients enjoy and appreciate their lending library of popular books and magazines.
- (5) The oldest function of the extension service is lending books to the classrooms and libraries of the elementary schools.

MARING BRANCH . . . SOUTHEAST

This branch is located in Heekin Park on South Madison Street. Although intended primarily for children and adults living in the southeastern part of the city, anyone living in Muncie or Center Township may use this library. Books for all ages and interests are available for checking out.

LINCOLN BRANCH . . . SOUTHWEST

Located in the Lincoln Elementary School at Twelfth and Sampson Streets, this branch library has its own separate entrance and particularly welcomes adults to make use of its books and services. Its complete selection of books is available for free circulation by anyone living in Muncie or Center Township.

... FOR TEEN-AGE INTERESTS

A special spot set aside for teenagers at the Main Library—with similar sections in the Maring and Lincoln Branches as well. Here are collections of books on sports, adventure, science, hobbies and many books to read just for fun . . . everything desired by the young adult.

NEWSPAPERS ON FILM . . .

Something new! One of the most valuable possessions of the library is its file of Muncie newspapers, (some over one hundred years old) which are being placed on microfilm. This will assure the preservation of these records and Muncie-of-the-past can be rediscovered by the use of the Microfilm Reader, as shown at right.

NEW BOOK PREPARATION

In a library system of this size, the preparation of new books is quite involved and time consuming. After the books arrive, each is assigned its numbers, index cards are prepared, and each physically reinforced to withstand constant wear and tear—all this and more before they are ready for use. This work is essential to identify each book quickly and to assure proper records in checking out books for home use.
